Shipper agrees to the UPS Terms found at www.ups.com and UPS service centers. For international air carriage, the Warsaw Convention as modified by Montreal Convention apply and limits UPS's liability for loss or damage to cargo. International carriage by sea may be subject to the Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Sea. Except as otherwise provided by international conventions or other applicable law, the UPS Terms limit UPS's liability for damage, loss or delay of this shipment. There are no express claims stated at the time of transfer of the shipment and the shipper agrees to hold the shipper harmless in any way it claims, represents or otherwise makes the shipper responsible. UPS is not responsible for any loss or damage to cargo, including but not limited to, perishable, hazardous, fragile, or otherwise sensitive cargo, unless the shipper notifies UPS of such at the time of shipment and the shipper agrees to hold the shipper harmless in any way it claims, represents or otherwise makes the shipper responsible.
